

hello in my opinion xm is one of the best things to come along in the last ten years, we as xm listeners pay for the service we get and it should not be up to the NAB to decide what i listen to. I believe this is going against my right to freedom. you the fcc need to listen to the public on issues like this and worry about real issues that matter, after all we the public are the ones that pay you all in the long run thanks